

Teacher of German

About the Role:

We are seeking an exceptional Teacher of German to join our team at Shackleton International School, starting in September 2025 and full-time. Shackleton is a British International School following the English National Curriculum up to Year 11, with the IB Programme thereafter. As a school that opened its doors in September 2021, we currently cater to students from EYFS to Year 10, with plans for annual expansion by adding one year group per year. We are searching for an enthusiastic individual who will positively contribute to our growth, playing a pivotal role in establishing the German curriculum across different year levels, devising comprehensive Schemes of Work, and enhancing the subject's prominence within our student community.

The successful candidate will have:

Education, Qualifications and Teaching Experience

- A degree in Education, MFL, German or a related field
- A PGCE or equivalent
- Proven experience of teaching German at Key stages 3, 4 and 5
- Understanding of the IGCSE German courses
- Understanding/familiarity of/with the IB programme
- Ability and willingness to contribute with and design/plan Schemes of Work for the growth of the department

German Proficiency

- Proficiency in German language and literature
- Strong knowledge of German grammar, vocabulary and cultural aspects
- Ability to engage students through interactive and dynamic teaching methods
- Familiarity with language acquisition strategies and techniques

Technological Skills

- Competence in using educational technology and software to enhance German language lessons
- Ability to integrate technology into teaching and learning effectively
- Excellent IT skills and interpersonal communication abilities for effective interaction with students and parents

Interpersonal and Communication Skills

- Strong communication and interpersonal skills to effectively engage with students, colleagues, and parents.

- Willingness to contribute to the school community through extracurricular activities such as German clubs, school trips and cultural events.
- Flexibility in their methodologies: lessons are dynamic and the idea is that students acquire a lot of their knowledge through experiences, debates and dynamism of the class.
- Excellent teamwork skills and collaboration with resourcing: Teachers value teamwork as a means of constant school development and improvement and have favourable attitudes for working together with their colleagues.
- Willingness to modify one's assessment methods to allow for effective student learning.
- A creative and enthusiastic approach both in and out of the classroom
- Experience in planning, integrating and delivering engaging experiential language learning projects
- The ability to modify learning strategies to target the needs of individual students.
- Being an integral educator of the student: besides the skills and abilities that they have to teach their students we are ultimately trying to train responsible and empathetic people. Values are important at academic and personal level.

Commitment to Professional Development

- Willingness to participate in ongoing professional development and training opportunities.
- Interest in staying updated with current trends and best practices in German education.

Legal Requirements

- Valid work permit to work in Spain
- Valid references, and have an up-to-date CRB check

Start date: September 1st 2025
